OUR STORY

Nature is an endless source of inspiration that constantly stimulates creativity and inventiveness. It is in the heart of the Swiss Alps, a privileged terrain for human conquests and exploits, that the Alpinium brand finds its origins and draws its strength.

The result of a collaboration between CBD professionals and sports athletes, Alpinium highlights, through a range of innovative products, the link between nature and performance.

Founded in Switzerland and a pioneer in the world of sports CBD products, Alpinium is known for recovery after exercise and to increase the performance of athletes.

The product range has been approved by numerous athletes, positioning the brand as one of the leaders in the market.

RECOVER TO PERFORM

Scientifically proven, relaxation neutralizes the physiological response to stress. This state causes physiological changes such as decreased heart rate, lower blood pressure and a decrease in muscle tension. Thus, relaxation is an integral part of an athlete's routine.

Alpinium offers the opportunity to make lasting changes while living a transformational experience. From innovative formulas inspired by the masters of the field for a real pleasure of use. With a relaxing scent and a feeling of ultimate freshness, Alpinium helps to soothe body and mind.

A combination of purity and quality for a soothed and relaxed body.
